PREFACE.

In issuing the Glasgow Post Office Directory for 1920-1921, the Publishers beg to express their thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed on the work during the long period of Ninety-two years, and desire to state that as formerly no effort has been spared to render it as accurate and complete as possible. They, however, do not hold themselves responsible for any error or omission.

The Almanac, Banks, &c., Statistics of the Population of the City and Suburbs, the Parliamentary and Municipal Voters for 1919-1920, with the Parliamentary Divisions of the City and Members of Parliament, also a description of the revised Municipal Wards, will be found in their former positions. To these have been added a list of the Conveners and Secretaries of the various Ward Committees. In the Streets Directory (pages 721 to 1046) the number affixed to the name of each street indicates the Municipal Ward in which such street is situated for electoral purposes. At pages 26 to 59 an Alphabetical List of Streets is given ; as a handy guide to their situation the capital and small letters prefixed to each Street indicate its position on the Map, and the number affixed its registration district.

The Publishers have pleasure in announcing that they are now in a position to include in the present issue of the Directory the Plan Map of Glasgow, which was withdrawn owing to War conditions.

The various Suburban Districts around the City are given, as formerly, revised and corrected.

In the Appendix will be found useful details regarding various Institutions and Public Offices.

The printing has been done by Messrs. Aird & Coghill, Ltd., 24 Douglas Street, and the binding by Messrs. Gowans & Gray, Ltd., 58 Cadogan Street.

All communications on Directory business should be addressed to the Editor, Post Office Directory, 207 Ingram Street, Glasgow.
